

JUSTICE LODGE No. 457 A.F. & A.M.

JVSTITIA NEMINI NEGANDA EST

5 June 2011

To All Regular Masons Wheresoever Situated:

We invite you to join us in Emporia, Kansas, on Saturday, August 13, 2011, for the second stated communication of Kansas' newest lodge, Justice Lodge No. 457.

A regular stated meeting for our members, the highlight of the meeting will be a Masonic education session given by W:. Cliff Porter, entitled "Intuition and Masonry from a Law Enforcement Perspective."

Cliff Porter is W:. M:. of Enlightenment Lodge No. 198 in Colorado Springs, Colorado, where he works as a homicide detective for the El Paso County Sheriff's Office. Bro. Porter is also recognized nationally for his work in teaching and presenting on the areas of Subconscious Communications as it relates to personal interactions and communications. He has worked cases gaining international attention, been featured by the Biography Channel, and has lectured Internationally for the United States government and military, state and local law enforcement, private corporations, churches, and spiritual centers. He has had published a number of Masonic writings as well and is the author of The Secret Psychology of Freemasonry: Alchemy, Gnosis and the Science of the Craft, Masonic Baptism: A Postmodern Ritual for an Ancient Craft, and 10 Easy Steps to Being a Heretic.

All regular Masons are invited to attend Justice Lodge, however we are an affinity lodge and actual membership is limited to forty-five (45) Master Masons who are past or present Law Enforcement Officers, which include federal, state, county, or city law enforcement officers, federal, state, county, or city corrections officers, and past or present federal, state, county, or city prosecutors.

As a courtesy to our members and guests, and in profound reverence for the sacred tenets of our Order, we enforce a dress code. Lodge officers shall wear tuxedos; members and guests shall be properly attired in tuxedo or dark business suit and tie. As a traveling lodge we do not have "courtesy" or communal aprons. Members and guests should bring their own Masonic apron to wear.

This communication will take place, by gracious permission, at Emporia Lodge No. 12 at 424 Merchant Street in Emporia. The lodge tiles promptly at 2:00 p.m. A catered festive board at $25 per person will be held at Plumb Place at 4:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the brethren may assemble, and your ladies are welcome. Seating is limited, so kindly RSVP using the contact information below; checks for your meal should be made out to "Justice Lodge No. 457."

We hope that you will join us.

Fraternally,

Michael A. Halleran
Master
